Art Unit: 1632

DETAILED ACTION

This application is a 371 national stage file of PCT/CA98/00792, filed August 21, 1998.

Claims 1-28 are pending and currently under examination.

Election/Restriction

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in response to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-8, drawn to an expression system for delivering a recombinant protein to an egg.

Group II, claims 9-12, drawn to method of preparing a recombinant protein.

Group III, claim(s) 13, drawn to a method of preparing an egg free of a pathogen.

Group IV, claims 14-17, drawn to an egg containing a recombinant protein.

Group V, claim(s) 18, drawn to a method of immunizing an animal.

Group VI, claims 19, drawn to a transformed avian cell line that excretes a recombinant antibody.

Art Unit: 1632

Group VII, claims 20-28, drawn to transgenic egg-laying animal in which a recombinant protein is delivered to the egg and methods of use.

The inventions listed as Groups I-VII do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

A) The invention has no special technical feature that defined the contribution over the prior art, or

B) Unity of invention between different categories of inventions will only be found to exist if specific combinations of inventions are present. Those combinations include:

- 1) A product and a special process of manufacture of said product.
- 2) A product and a process of use of said product.
- 3) A product, a special process of manufacture of said product, and a process of use of said product.
- 4) A process and an apparatus specially designed to carry out said process.
- 5) A product, a special process of manufacture of said product, and an apparatus specially designed to carry out said process.

The allowed combinations do not include multiple products, multiple methods of using said products, and methods of making multiple products as claimed in the instant application, see MPEP § 1850.

Art Unit: 1632

Applicant's claims encompass multiple products and multiple methods, and lack unity of invention. Further, expression vectors for making recombinant proteins in a target cell and vectors for making transgenic chickens have been previously disclosed in the prior art. See for example the vectors disclosed in Bosselman et al. US Patent 5,162,215.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because:

Invention I, IV, VI and VII are each drawn to separate and unique products encompassing materially different compositions. Invention II, III and V are each drawn to separate and unique methods requiring different starting materials and different method steps to practice. Further, each result in a materially different effect or product. The differences between the inventions are further underscored by their divergent and independent search status. The methods and the products are distinct because in each case the products can be obtained by a variety of methods and each of the products have a variety of uses.

The inventions above are independent and distinct, each from the other. They have acquired a separate status in the art as a separate subject for inventive effect and require independent searches. The search for each of the above invention is not co-extensive particularly with regard to the literature search. Further, a reference which would anticipate the invention of any one Group would not necessarily anticipate or make obvious any of the other groups.

For these reasons restriction for examination is proper.

Art Unit: 1632

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer and inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a diligently-filed petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(h).
